OXFORD.

Freeman Chastaine is out of the factory on a three or four week vacation. His stomach is badly out of order and a physician advises out door exercise. He fished round here last week; he is at the Lakes, and next week he talks of going to Moosehead Lake.

Thomas Baker is doing nicely in Portland. He has secured a situation as bookkeeper for Mr. French, a large real estate broker. This is a job just suited to Mr. Baker's taste and he is enjoying himself finely. He is sometimes called home to see his Oxford friends. We are informed he gets $15 a week. He has also been very fortunate in securing a rent. A wealthy but aged lady whose husband is a sea captain and away a large portion of the time, has Mr. Baker and his wife in her house rent free on condition that they look after her a little. The residence is a very elegant one on a fashionable street.

About twenty of our citizens attended the Oxford County Convention of the Knights of Labor at South Paris last Friday. They report a good attendance and a good time.

J. K. Chase is having quite a trade from runners, about the other hand. They are equal to the best city work, while his prices are much lower.

A large number of young Lake Sebago smelts have just been put into Thompson Pond. This pond now contains smelt, and brook salmon, lake trout, red spot, black bass, pickerel, cusk, hornpouts, eels without number, and many other kinds of common fish, and in a few years will be one of the best fishing grounds in Maine. The first lot of smelt died during transportation, owing to the fact that the can they were in was filled so full of water as to shut out the air.

The attendance at the Congregational church was very large last Sunday. The Rev. Clarence Greider's discourse on "The Kingdom of God" was very interesting and instructive. His discourse next Sunday will be on the "New Theology in the Congregational Church," at 2 p. m.

Children's Sunday was observed at the Methodist church last Sabbath. The church was finely decorated with lovely flowers, and there was a large attendance of interested young people. Next Sabbath Children's Sunday will be observed at Welchville, where preparations are being made for an elegant and appropriate display.

F. Q. ELLIOTT,

The So. Paris Clothier,

Has something to say this week to all that take the ADVERTISER, and to those that borrow it, and to all that read this valuable paper, what he knows about the Clothing Business.

He has had a little experience, having been in this kind of business some 10 years, and as yet have always paid 100 cents on the dollar. One thing they so many make failures, in his opinion, is in not buying well—to not buy good goods at low prices. He has always made a rule to buy his clothing, &c., when he could get the most value for his money; that's the secret of the whole business.

Now he wants all to understand that the Old Stock he bought of E. S. S. May 14th, 1887, since that sale, he has disposed of and bought over $3,000 worth of goods.
